

BEDFORDSHIRE COMBINED FIRE AUTHORITY
LOCALISM ACT 2011 – REGISTER OF INTERESTS

OTHER INTERESTS

Name (in BLOCK CAPITALS) _____ MICHAEL HEADLEY _____

It is a matter for Members to decide whether to register with the Monitoring Officer an interest which is not a DPI as defined above but which under the Code has to be declared at a meeting. For example, if a Member knew that a person in the Member's family (but not a spouse or partner) had a continuing contract to supply goods or services to the Authority it might be appropriate to include notice of the family member's interest in the Register, as well as declaring the interest if it related to an item on an Authority agenda.

Generally, in deciding whether to register interests other than DPIs, Members need to consider if a reasonable member of the public knowing the full circumstances would consider it was in the public interest to register the interest, as well as declaring it, if it was the subject of an agenda item at a meeting.

Please register these interests (if any) below and continue on a separate sheet of paper as necessary.
